

KEY INVESTOR INFORMATION

This document provides you with key investor information about the Class (as defined below). It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Class. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Sands Capital Emerging Markets Growth Fund (the "Fund"), a sub-fund of Sands Capital Funds Public Limited Company (the "Company") A Sterling Accumulating Class (the "Class") (IE00BF21WP44).

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund aims to grow the value of the capital invested over the long term.

- The Fund invests mainly in shares and similar instruments issued by companies that are domiciled or listed in, or that derive over half their revenues or profits from countries classified as emerging market countries and (subject to a limit on such investments of up to 20% of the net asset value of the Fund) frontier market countries by MSCI, which shall be quoted or traded on regulated stock exchanges worldwide.
- The Fund typically holds investments in 30-50 companies at a time whose profits the Fund expects to go up and which are stocks of companies that the Fund judges to be leaders in their area of business.
- The Fund also considers whether the target company's shares are reasonably priced in relation to the market and in light of the company's business prospects.
- The Fund is actively managed. This means that the Investment Manager has discretion over the composition of the Fund's portfolio subject to its stated investment objective and policies.
- The Fund's performance is measured against the MSCI Emerging Markets Index, which is the Fund's benchmark.
- The discretion of the Investment Manager over the composition of the Fund's portfolio is not constrained by reference to any benchmark index. Additionally, there is no requirement for target investments to form any part of the Fund's benchmark.
- The Fund does not pay investors a dividend. Instead, income and profits are reinvested.
- Investors may buy or sell shares of the Fund on any weekday other than a public or bank holiday in Ireland or when the New York Stock Exchange is closed, or on such other day or days as the Directors may from time to time determine and notify in advance to Shareholders.
- Recommendation: this Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within five years.

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk category is a measure of how significant the rises and falls in the Class' return have been historically - it does not measure capital gains or loss and may not be a reliable indication of the Class' future risk profile.

- The lowest risk category does not mean "risk free".
- The risk category shown is not a target or guarantee and may shift over time.
- The Class is in this category because of the type of investments that the Fund is permitted to hold, the various risks that the Fund may be exposed to and the typical level of return of the Fund.

The Fund may also be exposed to other significant risks that the risk indicator does not adequately capture. These may include:

- Counterparty risk: a counterparty to a financial contract with the Fund could fail to return money or instruments belonging to the Fund.
- Currency risk: If the Class currency differs from the base currency of the Fund then its value may be affected by exchange rate movements.
- Operational risk: management, business or administration processes, including those to do with the safekeeping of assets, may fail, leading to losses.
- Securities risk: some of the markets or exchanges on which the Fund may invest may go up and down, and the value of your investment may not increase.
- Emerging markets risk: investment by the Fund in emerging markets may involve a higher degree of risk because these markets may be more unstable than developed markets due to social, political, economic, legal and regulatory factors.
- Further details of risks to be considered when investing in the Company are set out in the Risk Factors section of the prospectus of the Company.
